<sup>1</sup> Defendants requested that the Court include the Retail Sales exemption as an affirmative defense and on the verdict form. The Court struck that defense from the jury instructions and verdict form at the Calendar Call with leave to re-assert it after the close of the evidence. Defendants request that the Court include on the verdict form a question that asks the jury to answer for each Plaintiff whether s/he “was exempt from the overtime pay provisions of the FLSA under the retail sales exemption.” Plaintiffs object to this defense or the inclusion of such a question on the verdict form and maintain that the sale of insurance does not qualify as “retail” sales.
